

Old Nottinghamians

Cambridge Dinner 2012

Trinity College

Saturday 5th May 2012 – from 7.00 pm

We have pleasure in inviting you to the Old Nottinghamians Cambridge Dinner at Trinity College this year. Trinity College was founded by Henry VIII in 1546, combining Michaelhouse and King's Hall. Michaelhouse had existed since 1324; King's Hall was established by Edward II in 1317 and refounded by Edward III in 1337. Since then Trinity has flourished and grown, and is now a home to around 600 undergraduates, 300 graduates, and over 160 Fellows. Princes, spies, poets and prime-ministers have all been taught there, and members of the College go on to a very wide range of professions and careers after taking degrees in all the subjects the University offers.

We are very grateful to Joshua Mills, ON 2002 – 2009 and undergraduate at Trinity, for making the arrangements for this event. Our evening will begin at 7.00pm with a drinks reception and this will be followed by Dinner at 7.30pm.

Cost: £45.00 per person; this includes the reception drinks beforehand, a three course meal, coffee and mints and wine with the meal.

Student price £15 per person. This concession price is available for Old Nottinghamians who are current undergraduate or graduate students (at any University) and is possible thanks to the generosity of Nottingham High School.

Dress: Black Tie. Guests and partners are very welcome to attend.

PLEASE NOTE that booking forms should be sent to Katrine Scott-Mitchell by Monday 30th April 2012 at the very latest
